a big thanks to our sponsors

The RIA is a non profit association. Thanks to the generous support of our sponsors, we enjoy industry relevant networking events and celebrate NZ retail design and shopfitting through the Red Awards.

maximise your membership

The RIA exists to promote, celebrate and support excellence in NZ retail interiors through facilitation of events to foster networking opportunities, celebrating success with the Red Awards and keeping you up to date with new news via Shelflife, our industry newsletter.

We value your membership and want you to get the most out of it. Here are a few things you can do to help maximise your investment:

Review your member directory listing:

As part of your membership, you have a company listing on the RIA website. The information on the directory can be updated at anytime.

Please review your listing. Is it current and relevant?

There is the opportunity to include photos of recent projects or new products and a summary of what makes you different.

Attend RIA networking events:

Throughout the year we facilitate industry networking functions and events. It's a great opportunity to catch up with your peers and learn more about topical industry Attendance is free for RIA members and your team. If you can't make it along, please extend the invitation to your colleagues.

Celebrate your work:

Tell us what you are up to; projects you're proud of, challenges you've overcome or collaborations that have been successful.

There are many ways we can support you and your projects:

- As News on the RIA Website
- Case studies in Shelflife
- Through social media
- As case studies
- Everyone loves a new news and we like to share.

We are here to help, please contact us today.
